

The large, turning mixer and scraper inside the canister of a hand-crank ice cream freezer. When homemade ice cream has just been made, and the dasher is removed, lots of fresh, luscious ice cream clings to it, and, according to legend, this is the best ice cream in the batch! It's a lucky person who gets to lick the dasher!